Mural Artist Luke Cornish

Highly acclaimed contemporary Australian artist Luke Cornish has created a beautiful new artwork on our school grounds. Luke spent a week transforming the massive 10 metre by 15 metre library wall with his amazing mandala design. Using a combination of hand cut stencils & aerosol paint Luke has woven imagery & symbols throughout the work that reflect the journeys we take in life & placed a timely & timeless message for all of our students at the centre of the design.

Artist: Allan McKenzie

Advocate for & protector of country

Storyteller through art

Allan McKenzie is a proud Gamilaroi/Wiradjuri man who possesses a powerful combination of strong cultural knowledge, respect & experience. Allan is known for his vibrant & contemporary colour palette & his use of traditional symbols & representation.

A modern storyteller & educator through optic engagement & protector of culture, Allan has taken the social media world by storm both in Australia & internationally. Allan captivates his audience with his vibrant aesthetics & then moves them in a narration across land, water, language into a pool of cultural immersion.
